THE CHARLOTTE JOURNAL.

"PERPETUAL VIGILANCE IS THE PRICE OF LIBERTY," FOR "POWER IS ALWAYS STEALING FROM THE NANY TO THE FEW."

VOLUME XIX.]

CHARLOTTE. N. C. SEPTEMBER 7, 1849.

NUMBER 45.

T. J. HOLTON. EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Flattering offers to Clubs. 6 copies one year to one direction, $10

LPAdvertisements inserted at One Dollar per ance. Court advertisements and Cheriff's Sales is shaken by storms, charged 25 per cent. higher; and a deduction of 334 per cent. will be made from the regular prices, for advertisers by the year. Advertiseper square for each time.

Postmasters are authorized to act as agents.

WEEKLY ALMANAC. SEPTEMBR Sun Son MANONS PHASE

	Friday, Saturday, Sunday,	riace. sets.			MOON'S PHASES
7 8			43 6	13.YT	For	10 S S S P.			1840
10		12 12 A	45 6 46 6 47 6 48 6 49 6	13	Last New	16	11	33	Jacon

POETRY.

The Sabbath.

To him who for six days a week Can rarnly call an hour his own, How sweet to watch the liabbath break, And bless the light that Heaven hath thrown welcome more than tongon can name The dearest morn that greats our soil, Is that the Sabbath bells proclaim, Which shuts the busy world of toil.

From morn to eve-from morn to eve-Still wakening but for work alone; Heaven! it is a blest reprieve To have one day to call out own-One day to breaths a water span nfettered by the bende of trade, To leave the plodding world of man, And view the world which God has made

I om the Democratic Review

John Hill, alias Nixon Curry: The Victim of Circumstances.

A TRUE SECTION OF LIFE IN AREANBAR.

in the present Convention, may be named John Hill, of St. Francis. His energy, eloquence and courage fully entitle him to the proud place he and, as we trust, will long retain-that the Senate of Arkansas.

guished citizens were killed, and three others dangerously wounded. The difficulty resulted nal of Arkansas, in order to satisfy every reader, that the following pareative, extraple memory will serve him very well.

of promising sons and dauguasse. Among these, the favorite was Nixon, distinguish shot were simed at his breast. his own weight, and after suffering dread. seemed perfectly hopeless.

poetry, scattering thick starred dreams and gracefully rapid fight.

thildren, caused no particular remark .- der to support his family, he resorted to gory knife towards his own breast, would trils of certain patrons and disciples on the is true, is, that the people for once, will re- Northern line run? Shall we take Mason's

Such attachments were common between the gaming table. He learned also to in | have plurged it into his heart, had be not drippings of whose kitchens they are ac- pudiate their rash advisers. The State, and, as usual, terminate abruptly, on arri and his disposition, necessarily soured by now crowded into the room. TWO DOLLARS are recent evening. For different, howrecent evening more flower for near be delayed three months; and THREE DOLLARS if not paid until the close of the year.

TERMS.

The same evening Mose flower disaprecent evenis, became quarrelsome in the special point of the same evening mose flower disaprecent evening flower flower of the same evening mose flower disaprecent evening mose flower disapcourse was furbidden by her parents-a I have myself seen persons of undoubted Antonio, Texas. mong the wealthiest aristocracy of Caroli Then followed stolen meetings by starlight, firmer vows and wilder love, which always increase in proportion to its crosses, equare, (16 lines or less, thus sized type) for the and tike the tree of Lobanon, sends down first insertion, and 25 cents for each continuits deepest roots into the heart, the more it

Finally, at seventeen, when Lucy's relatives were endeavoring to force her into ments inserted monthly or quarterly $1 per the arms of another, she flid with the lov-square for each time. Semi-monthly 75 cents er of her childhood. They were pursued overtaken; and Nixon Curry shot his rival and one of the proud Gordons dead on the fast table, suddenly burst into tears. spot, and then escaped with his bride, altains near the sources of the Catamba .-- for the robber and robber's cave. Here, under the plea of necessity, he emdered his name famous by the rumber and perhaps, but for the sake of historical truth, I am sure I shall die before susset." that the youthful bandit never was known purpose of plunder, though he did several no more in North Carolina.

At the first settlement of the fertile delta, bordering on the St. Francis, there came an emigrant, who called himself John Hill, and who soon succeeded in acquiring uni means, he was sober, industrious, generous father." and hospitable; and such continued to be his character, in the new country of his adoption, for twelve successive years. During all that long period be never had a personal difficulty or quarrel with any human being; and yet every body was saits courage, or deficiency in power to perform him. Mose, and be sure and bring him book grount it. good service, in any sort of battle field; for to-night." of all bear hunters that ever pieceed the Scenes in Real Life. jungles of cane in "the great swamp," or descended by torch light into the dark him. caves of the Ozark Mountains, he was cel-chrated as the most fearless.

He was repeatedly elected to the Terito himself by a strong, impassioned eloquence, as a chief leader in the Democratic ranks. He was next, as we have already seen, a "Among the truest friends of the people, of all member of the convention that formed the ed to pacify him. At last, the desperade intemperance and its concomitent sine, are, South Carolina, as ever Louis XIV was State constitution, and was elected again swore that he would clear the court house; nine times out of ten, traceable directly to France-it is true, throws a slight veil over made to bear upon him, and the rivalry the ensuing year to represent his county in and entering, with a fur our countenance, this renowned laboratory; and therefore, his sentiments. But the veil is of the thin. will cease. You must give the master a we may borrow the phrase of the country, menced beating him unmercifully. from an attempt to arrest John Hill, a member of the famous fighters." Notwithstanding their the last Legislature, and formerly of the State character was so dissimilar from that of the father in law, (alas! who was never to be;) eat; for it is contrary to the laws of nature of disustion. They are bold and manly, it of the answer is a lasted advocates to the laws of nature of disustion. They are bold and manly, it of the answer is a contrary to the laws of nature. The answer is a based advocates to the laws of nature of disustion. They are bold and manly, it of the answer is a based advocates. pacific "bear hunter," a close and cordial and attempted to pull him away. teen years ago is the mountains of Carolina." intimacy grew up between them; and Hill, We have given the previous extracts brother, George, a confident as to the se and with a single blow of his fist felled him from it. But the necessity here spoken of for these purposes and intentions? The from the oldest and most respectable jour. crets of his previous history. It happened to the floor; then fellowing up the violent is only a physical one; for the divine oco. Wilmot Proviso is the great grievance com. him. Did not a very faint hope of success desire for political distinction, and request ordinary as some of its incidents may ap | ed H il to resign his seat in the Senate in pear is no tissue of fiction. Indeed, while the illiberal friend's tavor. Hill refused, of beseeching horror, "For God's sake, within the power of an individual to pass the benefit of Virginia, and other loyal polls one of its representatives who led the relating genuine events, and painting true and the Strongs conspired for a terrible rescenes, we have been especially careful to venge. Writing back to Carolina, they avoid all vivid colors. Should this short procured a copy of the reward offered for sketch, by any chance, reach the forests of the arrest of Nixon Curry, the far famed Arkanas, the people there will deem its robber; and then collecting a party of a dodescriptions tame in comparison with the zen desperate men, they attempted to capdeeds of the man. The writer, who has re ture Hill in his own house. The latter had sided long on the frontier, has no use for always gone armed, with his enormous fancy in partraying its exciting life. Sim. double-birrelled shot gun, two long riflepistols, and a knife so heavy, that few oth-About fifty years ago there lived in Ire. er hands besides his own could wield it.—

dell cottons, North Carolina, a Presbyterian. The assault of the Strongs proved horrible. preacher, by the name of Curry. He was to themselves. Hill killed two of the bro a man in easy occummances, of tereprosch. there and dangerously wounded five of their able character, and having a large family friends, escaping houself unburt, although ed when a boy for his fearless courage and The excitement resulting from the offsir the tenderness of his heart alike. He seems was breadless. A requisiton came on from from several accedetes of his early days, to have been a child of impulse and in onse surrender of Nixon Carry. The governor length, while writhing and twisting like in countries and passion. When only six of Arkansas published an addational reward two raging serpents, the hand's of Hill's cious class; and should be dealt with acyears of age, he had a combat at school for the arrest of John Hill; and thus be with a bully of the play-ground nearly twice twixt the two fires, the victim's chance fully, at last achieved victory, due almost H.l.'s conduct in the crisis was prompt entirely to the sheer power of his endu- and fearless as ever. Packing up hastily, he set out with his wife and children, in a is to say, from the first session he attended sas, where he knew of a band of despera- his Mary's father. in the country school house, had Nixon does that he believed would protect him. have been mutual from the commencement. "fighters." Hill saw their approach on without a groan. They stood up in one class, and always the distant prairie, and with his dreadful Howard gazed on him there as he lay, round the land. managed to stand together. During the double barrel—that sure death dealer to with that singular smile on his face, and But this prevalence of idleness seems to himself, undertake to calculate the value of in the Southern States. If I were an abohours of recess, when the other jureniles either man or heast, within the range of his glazed eyes open. And then, awaking sanctify it in the public estimation. We the Union, the Union would be safe. But litionist, and were looking, without regard sports, the precocious lovers would wander meet his form. This incredible bravery, of the night, the poor, unhappy youth, fell sacred desk-no matter what the text may The people are consulted by them, like the edy for the real or fancied evils of slavery, I smidst leafy groves, or by the mossy mar- joined to the fear before inspired by his headlong on the body of his friend, crying be-which is not garnished with an elegins of silver rills. For ever, to eternity, desperation, affected the advancing troops in tones that melted many a hardened spec- quent episode or two against the offence of by the King, merely to comply with the Now, the war of faraticism and folly, waand whenever, the soft spell of first love with such an unaccountable panic, that the tator into tears, "Great God! what have loz mess throughout the other six days of forms of the Constituion. In most of the ged by the North upon Southern slavery, discoursed in sweet sinless whispers of their ding either in ludicrous or bloody failures. then, apparently satisfied that all was over, law, teel, that a Subbath homely against der the forms of Republicanism, renders In the meantime Hil's character and con- sprang upon his feet, and with a shout, or laziness would be a reproof of their own our present condition so alarming. And thus they grew up into one deli- duct underwent a complete change. Forced more properly a scream,-" Farewell, Ma- conduct during the week? Or do they That the leaders of South Carolina are clous identity of fancy and of feeling.— to be always on the look out, and therefore ry, your father is gone, and I am going fear that freedoms of this sort might be re-Their bias for each other's society, while unable to follow any steady business in or with him;" and turning the point of the garded as offensive in the aristocratic nos- and the only hope of escape, a faint one it courage turn pale merely at the appearance shot at a number of times, yet still occuped Insene, at New Orleans. without a sear. But this could be considerhands generally make very poor shots.

During the September term, 1843, of the Circuit Court for Pope county, in which words theatre of the main tragedy. Hill resided, he got up one morning uncommonly gloomy, and, while at the break

"What is the matter, my dear?" asked

"I have had a dreadful dream," waverbraced the profession of a robber, and ren- ed the husband, sheddering at the recollection; "I saw George Strong in my sleep, astonishing boldness of his exploits. We und he kissed me with his pale hips, that may record it, not as a matter of merit, burned like fire, and smelled of sulphur .-

"Then do not go to court, to day," said to perpetrate any deed of murder for the the wife, in accents of earnest entreaty. " But I will," replied the husband firmly. to avoid arrest. At length the rumor of "When a man's time is come, he cannot his daring felonies ceased suddenly, and, hide from death; beside, it would be the act notwithstanding a reward of five thousand of a coward to do so, if one possess the dollars was offered for his apprehension by power." Then addressing his son, a fine the Governor of the State, he was heard of intelligent boy of thirtien, he continued, Bill, you see my gun!" pointing his fin ger as he spoke to the great double barrel hanging on buckhorns over the door, " prac a skeleton tice with that every morning, and the day you are sixteen, shoot the loads of both bar-

> "Youder comes Mose Howard; he will your fathers order." protect you, pa," remarked Mary, Hill's eldest daughter, a loveley girl of fifteen, who was to be married the next day to the youth then approaching.

Reck Gazette, in the days of the Concention. The of misfortunes. Hill's nearest neigh rush for the door. One old drunken man other offences enumerated in the Decalogue. ing far better the purposes of allurement, manufactory of six hundred hands, in the lone did not run as fast as Hill wished, and considerable wealth, more ambition, and if he sprang on the imbecile wretch, and com- the necessity of laboring with his own friends, however, do not think it worth their turn the scale against the slaveholder in blood. Even the bye-standers, looking on all."

the youth of opposite sexes in the country, dulge in the fiery stimulus of sident drink, been prevented by the by-standers, who had customed to ca'culate? The good old John weak as she is in numbers, in territory, and

When the shocking news reached Hill's

Had we been inditing a tale of romance, ed no wonder; for even brave men's hands we would " we paused with a preceding shook when they waw him, and shaking page; but literal truth compele us to record another fact equally characteristic, both as to the chief actors and the back- endeth the first lesson.

It will be remembered, that the fallen demerado had er joined it on his son to slay the slayer of his father on the day that he should arrive at sixteen. Without any though hotly chased by more men, and Lucy-that beautiful Lucy, who had for such charge, vengeance would have been found an asylum in the Alleghany Mount merly left her wealthy home in Carolina considered by that boy as a sucred duty; for on the frontiers, the widows of the slain teach vengeance to their children, and occasionally execute it themselves !

Accordingly, Bill Hill practised with his father's gun every day for two successive years, and this even before he had any rumoras to the place of Howard's refuge .-He then learned that his foe was in Texas, and two months before he was sixteen set out to hunt him up.

At the end of four months Bill Hill came back, and hanging up the double-barrels in their old buck horn rack, answered his mother's enquiring look,-" Mother, Mose is dead; I let him have both loads. Though I cried before I done it, and afterwards too. -he looked so miscrable, pale, and bony as State, will insure its perusal by all clauses. " Poor Mose !" said the mother, weeping, "but it could not be helped. The son of versal popularity. Although of moderate reis into the man who will this day kill your such a brave man as Nixon Curry must naver be called a coward, and besides it was

From the North Carolina Argus.

Laziness.

We regard lexitess as one of the most that and Howard departed; Lucy with crying evils of the present day; and we to the conclusion, that if their rights are fied, that such a peaceful his -singular for tears, and Mary bow hing, both calling out believe that we could not do society a great. not the same, that at least their wrongs ad that latitude, was not owing to a want of as they left the gate, "Take good care of er service than to take up our parable a out of the same remody. This great remdays in idleness is just as great an offender ber the seventh, "the Sabbath-day, to keep presentative of the wiscome, thinks the re "Then he will live forever," retorted against the law as he who does not remem-Mary, laughing also.

As soon as the friends reached the vit it holy." And why should be not be !rial Legislature, where he distinguished lage, Hill began to donk deeply, and mani- What other fountain is more prolific of evil metrically opposite, must be false. That fested more than ordinary anxiety for a than lazinces? "An idle man's brain is both are held, there can be no question. combat, insuling every body that crossed the devil's workshop," and it always has his path, and all the youth's entreuties fail- been. Rape, rubbery, murder, swindling, sonifies South Carolina, that he is as much and a threat as to his purpose, jidge, law- there is no reason why idleness should not nest gauze, and is intended more to height. vote for each one of his slaves, or the inof leader of the Arkaness Democracy "-Little At this period commenced his second se. yers, jury and spectators made a general be placed in the same category with the en charms than to conceal them-subserv. stitution of slavery will perish. A single hands or head for a livelihood-shall he while to wear even this veil of gossamer, either of these counties. Notwithstanding their Howard then caught hold of his future still be compelled to work? Yes, or not and they stand confessed, taked advocates Is it asked why the free laborer at presfor a man to consume the fruits of the earth in true, in thus giving to the country their The answer is at hand. The free laborer With eyes red, and glaring like a mad without doing something to restore to the purposes and intentions; but are they equal is in a hopeless minority. Give to him a dog. Hill instantly turned upon his friend, common stock as much at least as he takes ly bold and manly, in giving us the reasons hope of specess, and you will find him with that this same George conceived a violent act, he leaped on the youth, and began a comy impresses upon all men the necessity plained of; but the enougly of South Caro in 1532, draw out an alarming abolition most ferocious battery. In vain Howard of labour, And when the death of one re line to the Union, is older than the Wilmot vote in Virginia ! Did not the great slaveendeavored to escape, crying out in tones lative, or the industry of another, places it Proviso. This reason is kindly offered for bolding county of Albemarle, sustain at the cease! Hill, don't you know me !- Your off his time without employment, should States of the South. The Proviso might abolitionist movement? When asked how friend Mose! Remember Mary?" Hill's this exempt him from the obligation of the be erased from the statute book of the coon. he came to be returned, his characteristic anger only increased, till finally, he threw commandment? Shall money, or lands and try, slavery might be freely allowed from reply was, " I appealed to the poor folks." his hand to his belt, and clutched a pistol. goods, annul the laws of God and render the Atlantic to the Picific -all that the This appeal has stways been responded to And then Howard's blood also boiled, and them of non effect in the case of their pos Abulticuists have done, and that Mr. Polk by the poor tolks, and always will. Can he resolved to fight for his life. He was sessor? Then why not allow him to kill? has failed to do, might be cured by the uny one point to a single individual in Virof as powerful a frame as the other, -the to commit adultry? to steal? to bear false unanimous action of Congress, and yet Mr. ginia, who has been weakened in popular only person in all Arkansas to be compared witness against his neighbor? These crimes Cathoun, and his followers, would still find favor by siding with abolition in 1832? Is with the desperado in physical strength. are forbidden by the very same code that some admirable reason for disunion. Howard grasped the barrel of the pistol er juns labor on every man; and if the posas Hell cocked it, and the weapon exploited session of property be allowed to furnish Union, it is hardly worth while to inquire speech, cherished by the Democracy? has in their hands we hout legary. Once more exemption from the one, why shall it not into. It may be the jealousy of weakness Preston lost cast with the Whigs, or has they elenched, and the most dreadful strug provide impunity for the others? These -the discontent of poverty, operating on the Richmond Enquirer had its subscription e'e ensued ever witnessed in the wes' .- offences differ only in degrees of atrocity; States, like it does on individuals of ill-reg. list curtailed by the lapse of a single name? The advantage shifted from one side to the and hence, the Apostle lays it down that, ulated minds, causing them to hate what It slavery can scarcely now be sustained other for the space of five minutes, till "whoseever shall keep the whole law and they despair of reaching by bold effort or in Virginia, a plantation State, almost withboth were bathed in streams of their own yet offend in one point, he is guilty of honest emulation-or it may be disappoint- out manufactures, what will be its doom through the windows of the log court house. The idler then, whether rich or poor most charitable, but the least probable read into the body of the State, and each were struck with wonder and awe. At ought to be arregard at the bar of pub son-it may spring from an honest patriot. free laborer having the political power of huge bowie knife, unthought of previously, cordingly. He who steals six pence worth fact is notorious that, South Carolina is and the few exceptions are, one by one, falprotruded from beneath his hunting shirt, of bread from his neighbor's shelf to satis- disloyal to the Union. Her Press, her ling into the general rule. Does any man Both see it at the same time, and both at- fy his hongry soul, is deemed a felon, and Legislature, her public meetings, her peo who thinks, or who can think, entertain the compled to green it. Howard succeed loses his liberam legem. How much bet- ple at Church and at market, the cross idea for a single moment, that slavery can ed; quick as lightnles he drew the keen ter is he who swindles the State that pro- roads and the bar-room, all testily, with a stand up in the face of a manufacturing blade from its scabbard, and sheathed it up tects him, out of all the accessions that concert resily marvellous, if the fact be not population, and universal suffrage? The From the time he was six years old, that common moving wagon, for Upper Arkan- to the hilt in the bosom of his friend and might be made to their aggregate accomu-"The dream is fulfilled," exclaimed Hill life? Not a whit, say we; and therefore lowed in the heart of South Carolina. If blows of both, its destruction would be cer-Curry been in love. His idol was a little girl He was overhauled at Conway Court house with a smile of strange sweetness, that re- he ought to rank according to his demerits. This State were as other States of the Union, tain and sudden. Universal suffrage would of the same age, and under the tuition of the by two hundred men in pursuit, all thor mained on his features even after he was a Public opinion ought to place in the hand no danger would spring from this unnature not be more fatal to the National Church same master. The attach nent appears to oughly armed, and some of them renowned corpse. He then sank down, and expired of every member of society a thong of al condition of her political affections, and and the Peerage of England, than this same plaited scorpions to lish the rascal maked the disorganizing tendencies of her politi- universal suffrage, combined with a manudivine visions of beauty over all things. - Several other attempts were made to vailing sorrow; essayed to staunch the selves as especially called to reprove the Carolina, the representative instructs the Wesley thought it his duty to board this in wealth, is nevertheless potent for misvoluntary blockhead is a knave? He de- yet more fatal. Little Delaware herself, frauds his benefactors, his parents and the holds in her hands the destiny of this great world; and robs both God and his own Republic. The slightest disloyalty on the of Hill's gigantic form, broadly belted and family, the beautiful Mary burst into a wild soul. Yet how many lazy drones, as if part of the smallest member of our confedbristling with pistols. He was way laid and lough. She is now in the Asylum for the only Fruges consumere nati ! Born to eat eracy, should be locked on as an indication shot at a number of times, yet still occaped Instant. She of Produce of the soul." Mental idleness more particularly, were the species on which this great and good man was dis- culmly and dispassionately at the consecoursing; but his remarks are equally ap- quences of it. I do not propose to calcucalle to lezinese of every kind .- Here late the advantages of Union, for they are

LPOLLICEPE CHALLO.

From the Danville (Va.) Register.

We invite the reader's particular atten tion to the article of our correspondent Union," which, according to promise, appears in our paper of to day. Though some of our readers may be inclined to differ from the conclusions at which the author arrives. vet they must all agree that he is a writer if no ordinary it it - evincing ability as Each must have its border closely studded less commanding than his style is captive. with fortifications, which the experience of ting-a mind no less philosophical than his deductions are logical. Let not the length of the essay then deter any from reading An immense line of seaconst must be deit. It could not well have been shorter- fended; a navy must be kept up; a standit could not well have been abler. But if its own merits fail to arrest attention in of men, must be held in readmess to repel this ege of literary leziness, when men invasion, for nations with sea or mountain shrink from the perusal of an essay half a column long, surely the annunciation-the argumentum ad hominem-that it is from the pen of one of the first statesmen in the

South Carolina and the Abolitionists.

Extremes meet. The ultraist of South Carolina, and the ultraist of Massachusetta, are holding out their hands to each other, not in menuce as of old, but in friendship. They stand on the same platform, and af ter a full and free communion, have come edy, is the disunion of the States of the A-"Never fear," answered the youth, with the work," is a part of the Commandment; is the institution of slavery on our continuent is the institution of slavery on our continuent; a length; "Hill will never die till I kill and we hold that he who spends a service of the Abolitionist;—disunion will factures going up under the genial encournent, thinkst he Abulitionist; -disunion will of Mason's and patients of slavery south agement. Free labor, as the necessary conlina. Now, one of the propositions.

> Mr. Calhoun-who so completely per But suppose an individual is not under than of modesty. His followers and his county of Pittsylvania, or Halifax, would

Since disunion is threatened, let us look incalculable, but simply to point out the effects of disunion on the institution of slavery in the Southern States. The Abolitionist thinks that disunion will. in the long run, utterly eradicate slavery on the American continent, and the Abolitionest thinks rightly and truly. A few words will make it plain. I will say nothing of the difficulty of running a line of disunion, but run it where we will, it must be guarded, and that too at great cost. There will be no natural barrier, to separate the contiguous States the continential States of Europe, proves to be a source of enormous expenditure .ing army, of a larger or smaller number to keep them asunder are always in danger of collision. A Legislature, an Executive, and a Judiciary Department, have to be established and supported. In short the Southern Confederacy would cost as much, or nearly as much, as our present great confederacy of thirty States. The necesmty of defence against a jeulous, and may be, a hostile neighbor, might make the small confederacy even more expensive than the present great one. The revenue necessary to meet this great expense, could not be derived from direct taxes, without intolerable pressure on the people. Like other nations, we should be compelled to resort to the easier, and less burdensome expedient, of indirect taxes. In a word, a tariff, and a very high tariff, must be the sequence, pours into the country. Now, free and slave labor are at war, when sepealed by the distance which divides South pect harmony washusetts. Shall we exother's windows? The idea is pro-The slave will be looked on by the free la borer as his rival. The bullot box will be not McDowell, who won his first and green-The cause of this enmity to our glorious est laurels as an orator by an abelition ed ambition in the race of party-or the when an immense amount of free labor is titions by his labour in the course of his the coursels of Washington, are not hal latter would abolish it; but under the united cal doctrines. If each citizen would for facturing population, would be to slavery comes, it brings with it the bright spirit of whole two hundred sought safety in a disposetry, scattering thick starred dreams and gracefully rapid fight.

I done?" He kissed the clammy lips of the week, when all are commanded to States of our confederacy, the constituent keeps our people united in its defence.—

The pressure of the atmosphere does not instructs his representative; but in South instruction has been also been also be a south instruction has been also been also be a south instruction has been also been also be a south instruction has been also been also be a south his representative. Even then they exchanged pledges, and capture the dangerous outlaw, all alike en- bloody wound with his handkerchief; and transgression committed against the divine constituent. This unnatural obgarchy, un in through artery and vein, than does the pressure of Northern opposition, keep down the resistance of our own people, against the institution at their doors. Northern

But on what parallel of latitude will our